Character. People. Service.

OUR COUNTY AND COMMUNITY

Ventura County is located on California's "Gold Coast," approximately 35 miles northwest of Los Angeles and 20 miles southeast of Santa Barbara. Residents enjoy rolling hills and sweeping ocean views in a nearly perfect Mediterranean climate with an average annual temperature of 74 degrees. The beauty and weather combined with a wonderful quality of life are among the many reasons our residents choose to call Ventura County "home."

Ventura County is a "general law" county, governed by a five-member, elected-by-district Board of Supervisors. The Supervisors appoint a County Executive Officer (CEO) to oversee the County budget, day-to-day operations, and to advise, assist and act as an agent for the Board of Supervisors in all matters under the Board's jurisdiction.

THE AGENCY

The County of Ventura's Public Works Agency (PWA) is comprised of five departments each headed by a department director: Central Services, Engineering Services, Roads and Transportation, Water and Sanitation, and Watershed Protection. Collectively, the five departments deliver efficient, responsive and cost effective public works services that protect and enhance the safety, health and quality of life in Ventura County.

PWA has an annual operating budget of $350 million and a staff of 411 full-time employees. The Agency holds direct oversight and responsibility for 542 centerline miles of roads, 56 dams, 158 bridges, 216 miles of channels and levees, 262 miles of water main pipes, 163 miles of sewer pipeline, 43 traffic signals, 1,056 catch basins or storm drain inlets, and 2,459 culverts. Annually, PWA actively manages roughly $250 million in capital projects for other agencies, administers $10 million in consultant contracts, directly oversees $50 million in construction, and assists with 8,500 inquiries (annually) at the public counter. Additionally, PWA is responsible for Fox Canyon Ground Water Management as well as $276.8 million in appropriations through 61 budget units, 33 funds, generated through fees, appropriations, property tax, special assessments, and grants.

Staff assignments are diverse and vital and include maintenance workers, equipment operators, construction specialists, biologists, ecologists, chemists, engineers, accountants, administrators, geographers, writers, programmers, real property agents, and more.

"Dedicated to Innovation and Excellence" serves as PWA's "true north." Every PWA department works collaboratively to maintain the County's public works infrastructure and improve the quality of life and economic vitality of residents and businesses in Ventura County.

THE POSITION

The successful candidate will be a registered California Mechanical or Civil Engineer and have experience with executive level leadership, project delivery, continuous process improvement methodologies, preparing and making public presentations before regulating bodies, and working collaboratively with government officials and constituents to achieve objectives.
