How to Curb Pedestrian Fatalities — Understanding Speed Safety Systems

Studio II/III

This session will explore the role of these systems in improving road safety, focusing on key topics such as enabling legislation AB 645 (pilot cities), the capabilities and limitations of safety cameras, how to prioritize safety and equity over profits, and dispel common misconceptions.

Moderator:

- Damian Kevitt, Executive Director, Streets Are For Everyone (SAFE)

Speakers:

- Juan Matute, Deputy Director, UCLA Institute of Transportation Studies
- Derek Smith, Founding and Managing Member, Maranship Development LLC
- Will Barnow, Vice President of Strategic Partnership, Verra Mobility

Future Proofing Transportation Funding

Studio I

California’s shift to zero-emission vehicles (ZEVs), including the Advanced Clean Cars II regulation requiring 100% ZEV sales by 2035, is accelerating the decline of fuel excise tax revenues - projected to drop 31% in the next decade. This session examines the challenges posed by this decline on transportation infrastructure, economic health, and quality of life, along with potential solutions like a road user charge.

Moderator:

- Benjamin Lopez, Political Director, Rebuild SoCal Partnership

Speakers:

- Kiana Valentine, Executive Director, Transportation California
- Lauren Prehoda, Road Charge Program Manager, California Dept. Transportation
- Frances Dea-Sanchez, Associate Deputy Director, California Transportation Commission

Best Practices for the use of Recycled Materials in Asphalt Pavements and Training Opportunities from the CCPIC

Grand Ballroom

This session will explore best practices for maintaining and improving asphalt pavements, focusing on the incorporation of recycled materials in asphalt mixes under the new state law. By understanding how asphalt pavements deteriorate and fail, participants will gain insights into proactive maintenance and construction techniques that enhance pavement performance and sustainability.

Moderator:

- Matt Randall, Deputy Director, Placer County, Dept. Public Works

Speakers:

- John Harvey, Director, City & County Pavement Improvement Center (CCPIC), UC Davis

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 2025

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Fleet and Electric Utility Partnerships for EV Implementation

Studio II/III

The transition to electric mobility is not just a trend but a necessity to mitigate climate change. Electric vehicles (EVs) play a pivotal role in achieving these goals; however, successful EV implementation requires collaboration between fleets and electric utilities to overcome infrastructure challenges, manage costs, and optimize operations. This presentation will explore the strategic partnerships between fleet operators and electric utilities to accelerate the adoption of EVs.

Moderator:

- Joseph Mattox, Fleet and Facilities Maintenance Division Manager, Moreno Valley

Speaker:

- Jason Niccoli, Electric Utility Division Manager, Moreno Valley

Innovative Approaches to Building Infrastructure: Thinking Beyond Design-Bid-Build

Grand Ballroom

With demands on existing infrastructure increasing, are there better ways to get major projects built? New legislation allows cities to implement progressive designbuild project delivery methods to hire design and construction teams at the beginning of a project. This presentation will discuss how cities can successfully use progressive design-build, along with other similar and underutilized alternative project delivery tools, to build public infrastructure.

Moderator:

- Michael Maurer, Partner, Best Best & Krieger

Speaker:

- Craig Hayes, Partner, Best Best & Krieger

Innovative Rubber Pavement Products Come to Rural and Remote California

Studio I

Stanislaus County in partnership with CalRecycle is constructing a pilot project to evaluate a potential new method of incorporating recycled rubber in asphalt mixes to enhance pavement performance. This session will explore the County's motivation for adopting this new road technology, potential benefits, and the practical steps of implementation and construction proving its viability for rural and smaller agencies.

Moderator and Speaker:

- David Leamon, Public Works Director, Stanislaus County

Speakers:

- Theron Roschen, Municipal Services Manager, Interwest Consulting
- James Signore, Principal, NCE

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

10:30 a.m. - 11:45 a.m.

An Innovative Approach to Generate Funding and Promote Stormwater Capture and Use: Stormwater Credit Programs

Studio I

Stormwater Credit Programs provide municipalities with a funding source by selling credits from regional stormwater capture projects to regulated dischargers. These programs support funding, maintenance, and regulatory compliance. Attendees will gain practical strategies for leveraging this approach to sustainable stormwater management.

Moderator:

- Matthew Lentz, Vice President and Principal, GSI Environmental

Speakers:

- Keith Linker, Principal Civil Engineer, Anaheim
- Amanda Booth, Environmental Program Manager, San Pablo
- Mark Grey, Principal Technical Director, Construction Industry Coalition on Water Quality

Public Works Visibility as First Responders

Public works professionals are often the unsung first responders, arriving first after disasters to clear the way and staying long after the crisis ends. Despite their critical role, they are often overlooked by communities, officials, and even other city departments. This presentation explores strategies to raise the profile of public works departments, and emphasizing their officially recognized status as first responders under Presidential Policy Directive 8.

Opening Remarks:

- Scott Smith, Public Works Director, Fountain Valley and President, Public Works Department

Moderator and Speaker:

- Joubin Pakpour, Region 8 Director, American Public Works Association

Speakers:

- Joshua Pack, Director of Public Works, County of Butte
- Ken Berkman, Director of Public Works, Burbank

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

2:15 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Managing Federal Funding during Disaster and Emergency Events

Studio I/III

This session will provide an overview of the Federal Highway Administration's (FHWA) Emergency Relief Program, offering essential insights into how to work with Caltrans and understand the key differences between FHWA and FEMA funding programs. Attendees will learn the fundamentals of these federal funding options, eligibility requirements, and application processes for managing and documenting disaster-related expenses.

Speaker:

- Vince Mammano, Director of Strategic Solutions, Mark Thomas

THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 2025

Right-of-Way (ROW) the Right Way

Studio I

This session provides strategies for setting ROW projects to achieve negotiated settlements, avoiding eminent domain. Speakers will focus on how to clearly define the rights required for the project, understand the property owners' needs, facilitate a smooth path to agreement, streamline ROW delivery, incentive programs, waivers, design expectations, as well as managing third-party ROW rights.

Moderator:

- Bob Morrison, Vice President, Monument ROW

Speakers:

- Artin Shaverdian, Partner, Nossaman LLP
- Jason Jurens, District Manager, Consor
- David Leamon, Public Works Director, Stanislaus County

Citywide Street Sweeping Parking Restrictions: Strategies for Effective Implementation and Community Impact

Producer/Director/Writer

This session explores the collaborative efforts of the City of Ontario Public Works Agency to develop and implement a citywide street sweeping parking restrictions program. With a population of 185,000 and spanning 50 square miles, Ontario is the 3rd largest city in San Bernardino County but lacked a coordinated parking restrictions program for street sweeping. Speakers from the several city departments will share the challenges they faced in addressing resident concerns, the planning process, and how various city departments worked together to launch the program.

Moderator:

- Andrea Ampig, Senior Management Analyst, Ontario

Speakers:

- Bonnie Tam, Public Works Departmental Administrator, Ontario
- Tim Masot, Parks and Streets Maintenance Manager, Ontario
- John Gonzalez, Lieutenant, Ontario Police
